

Local Offer SEN Support Analysis

General Considerations

- Partial 1 - Online resources are available, but not as user friendly. Also, offline resources are not signposted.
- Partial 2 - Not able to find in the stated time. However readers are asked to rank the content on the page on a 1-5 scale.
- Yes 3 - Clear top-up funding information is included in the LO.
- Partial 4 - EHC Assessment request information is clear. LO does include information relating graduated approach, however it is difficult to find.
- Yes 5 - Information included as a quick link on the LO home page.

Additional Comments: 6 - Best Practice - best examples include a statement of what is the LO, why do they publish it, and how to use it. Warrington does not do this.

- Yes 3 - n/a

Additional Comments: 4 - Best practice - As with Stockport, this LO contains specific information regarding SENCO collaboration, parental

School Specific Considerations

- Yes 1 - n/a
- Yes 2 - n/a
- No 3 - LO provides generic information for parents post-16, and providers clear education information. However the LO does not provide specific information as to the post-16 Education provision/support.

Additional Comments: 4 - LO clearly states the statutory need for providers to publish a SEN information report, highlighting their processes for

Post-16 Specific Considerations

- Yes 1 - LO outlines institutions alongside guidance from PfA.
- Partial 2 - LO contains information relating to the Youth Offending Service (YOS), which is shared between Cheshire West, Halton, and Warrington. However information relates to general LA provision, as opposed to specialist

Additional Comments: 4 - LO clearly states the statutory need for providers to publish a SEN information report, highlighting their processes for
